Director, Producer, Editor and Cinematographer

I have been in film and television since 1997. I started as the floor manager, camera operator and producer's assistant for QVC's "The Shopping Channel" in London, England. Since my return to Canada, I have had many roles as a Director of Photography and Director. Currently, I work freelance as a Segment Producer for Novus TV, primarily City Lights. I also teach as a film consultant for Kaleidoscope in Richmond.
